

Please keep the WI no call list. Life is hard enough economically and personally and then having people calling you to buy stuff at all times day night when you can't afford it and your trying to get some peace and quite after a hard day at work.
Thank You!